GOLD DEMOCRAT

Secretary of War Luke Wright to Stamp For Taft

WASHINGTON, August 20th.—Secretary of War Luke E. Wright, Gold Democrat, is to stamp the State of Tennessee for the Republican ticket. General Wright does not personally admit this to be true, but the information was permitted to go out from the War Department with authority.

There was a time when the Republican managers had some hope of carrying the State of Tennessee for Taft, but party quarrels and the strife between the two factions seeking to obtain control of the party machinery has dispelled whatever hope Chairman Hitchcock may have had.

General Wright is a good campaigner, and the fact that he is to enter actively into the fight for the election of Judge Taft may put new life into the party in that State.

Judge Timothy D. Harley of Chicago is welcomed here on a visit to friends and yesterday
made THE LEDGER a pleasant call. Judge Harley is an old time Maysville boy who is making good in his Western home. He is the founder of the Juvenile Court in Chicago and his splendid judgment and executive ability have brought this movement to the front throughout the United States. Judge Harley is a member of the Catholic Church, and in one Parish in Chicago the Church has 40,000 communicants. His department keeps in touch with the lives of 360,000 school children,
figures which show the immensity of the work
to which he is devoting his efforts.

"An ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure." Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has been good to keep you well and make you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Thos. J. Chenoweth.

Old in Years, But "Young" in Ideas.

As we are writing this we are preparing our windows to exhibit our new line of Fall Suits. If any single novelty in the way of the incoming fall styles is left out of our stock it is our fault, for months ago we had pick and choice of the productions of the very best manufacturers in the country. Now take a glance at our windows, or better still, come in and try on a few garments; you will see the acme of ready-to-wear clothes. We specially invite youngsters who soon will return to their respective Colleges to come in and be shown our "College Brand" Suits. There is a "snap and go" to them that is "fetching" to the utmost degree. Our stock of Trunks represents anything you may need in that line. Probably the young man will want to supply himself with Fall Underwear. We have all kinds. Last, but not the least, Hatan, Douglas and Walkover Shoes. You will want a pair of one of these lines.

Accommodations For Sale

AT HALF PRICE AND LESS.

Sounds queer doesn't it? If a piece of goods is in a ten-yard length, we cut off two, give you what you ask, and the short end left helps to make the lot of bargains we offer today.

You're glad to be accommodated by just what you want and you're glad again to choose what you like from these short lengths and pay so little.

Bits of two to four yards, a few seven to ten—short pieces from all over the store. Not many silks, a fair collection of white and colored table damasks, but wash goods in lavish assortment; everything is represented, swiss, mull, batiste, gingham, lawn and here and there a bit of linen. Prices? Look above. You know that headline would never have appeared unless facts warranted it.

Don't delay—don't wander in when the best is gone. Come now.

How is the Kentucky State Educational situation at Frankfort for a case of horrible example?

Ohio is called a doubtful State this year, because nobody can tell whether TART's plurality will be 100,000 or 150,000.

LOUISVILLE is getting awful bad. That naughty city is to have 34 new policemen added to her force September 1st.

MR. BRYAN will get all the injunction he wants on Tuesday, November 3d. On that day the voters of the United States will make the injunction permanent, which will bar him forever from the Presidency.

It is gratifying to note that Kentucky has one college that is making rapid strides as an educational institution, and that the State University at Lexington, with 1,200 students, is now numbered with the great schools of the United States.

Rev. H. T. Mueselmann will preach at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning at 10:30.

NEARLY $100,000 is spent in the City of Mexico every week for lottery tickets and only $70,000 paid back in prizes. Here is a clear profit of $30,000 weekly, or a rake-off of $1,560,000 a year. Another Mexican silver mine and a pointer which shows that the Mexican is a first cousin to the American, in that he loves to be humbugged and likes to gamble.

MARSE HENRY is not practical. He allowed poetic sentiment to influence him in appointing his aesthetic "Press Committee," every member of which must wear a smile and a button. "Beesness is beesness," and as long as Marse HENRY doesn't apply it to politics by calling into line old-line Bryan men to assist in trying to elect Mr. BRYAN, the nothing doing sign will continue to hang in front of Fairview.

FROM the bottom of THE PUBLIC LEDGER's clipping drawer we have dug up the following item taken from Editor ALLEN's Cynthiana Democrat:

The optimistic Maysville LEDGER says Senator BRADLEY "when he takes his seat in the Senate will surely have the 6-cent tax on leaf tobacco repealed." THE LEDGER would tinkle Uncle NELSE ALBRIGHT to death.

Come to think of it "we would now." No one should size up Uncle NELSE as a two-fer. And Marse BRADLEY won't hit anybody when he strikes Washington.

LITTLE VISITS

WITH "UNCLE BY" (Copyright 1908, by Byron Williams.)

Co, Boss!

The family cow is becoming obsolete. Time was when village residents were wont to have a brown-eyed bovine in the family. Her clover breath was no less famed than her butter and as an alarm clock in the morning she was reliability itself. The docile creature was referred to by the "women folks" as "bossy." She was milked by pa when he came home tired at night and who ever and anon awakened the echoes of the neighborhood, shouting: "So! So! Boss! Durn ye, so!" when she got her tail in the milk pail or swatted him with the burrs in the end of it.

The boy of the household was yanked out of bed every morning about 5:30 o'clock to drive the beast to pasture. His parents told him the task taught him diligence. Usually he was too sleepy to be diligent except when the cow wandered into a hardby sweet-corn patch and the dogs chased her. Every time company came ma would brag about "our cow" and show the visitors how much milk she gave and how thick the cream was.

This was the status of the cow business in many little cities a few years ago, but alas! a proud family sentiment has decreed that it is no more proper to keep a cow than a pig, even though the bovine may not be kept in the parlor, as the old song tells us the pig was. The rural mill man who was wont to sell bran and "shorts," mixed corn and oats, to coddle hussy into "giving down her milk," is authority for the statement that the town cow is fast disappearing with her tether toward the broad farms and the butcher's slaughter house. The cruel and yet aesthetic hand of civilization has slapped the cow northwest of her backbone and chased her ruthlessly out of the brick-paved streets and the lawn tennis courts into the pastoral quietude of the country. She has been made to feel that she is a plebeian rather than an aristocrat, and the passing of the town cow is complete. Thick, rich cream is no longer known to the younger generation, whose opinion of this luscious, yellowish product is rather blue, to say the least. Vale! the town cow! Would she were a bird or a gazelle that we might keep her over with us and still be fashionable!

Stumped.

I've been a-sittin' here to-day, A-tawdlin' of my pesky thumbs, An' wishin' for a thought t' say— But nothin' worth the candle comes! Dog-gone th' luck, I can't think twice— At least, I can't think nothin' nice!

But I shan't waste no time at all; I've got t' write some piddle down, For else th' mortgagor man will call An' chase me back into the town— Gist call an' say: "Git off th' grass, An' you quit raisin' garden sass!"

That mortgage man has got a mole Right on th' back part of his neck, His eye is bly an' his soul Is shriveled like a mustard spec'— He wouldn't do a thing, I see, If he could get his hooks on me!

And so, I HAVE to write like this— I know it's awful shoddy rhyme, But grieve me whiskeys, I can't kiss Or tickle Muses all th' time! Why, sometimes, when I spile my plea, They hand a LEMON out to me!

When all the muses cut me cold, I sit and blow my doze an' cough! I'd like, if I may be so bold, To bust your trousers' buttons off, But Pegasus is lame to-day— And there's a ball game anyway!

Discords.

There is murder in almost every house nowadays. At least, they are hanging wall paper.

A man that can live in a small town 30 years and then be elected mayor, must be a superior being.

A country village never can graduate from obscurity into the fashionable suburban residence town so long as the president of the school board pronounces it "deestric" school and the chairman of the village board says "the following warrants shall be drawn."

A friend of mine, noted for doing things adversely, recently built a barn, and instead of using a rooster for a weathervane he had a neat little hen figure made. This was duly placed on the cupola of the new structure. No sooner was it installed that the hired man quit. When pressed for a reason, he blurted: "I don't mind getherin' eggs, and ye know it, but I'll be darned if I'm goin' t' climb up on th' roof fer 'em."

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 600 grains of impure matter daily; when unhealthily some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorder of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Frederick Drenel, 1238 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a most excellent kidney remedy, and I am only too glad of an opportunity to speak in their behalf. About five years ago I was bothered by kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were attended with much pain during passage and were very irregular in action. Severe pains across the small of my back were of frequent occurrence and at times greatly interfered with my work. A friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills, as he had taken them for a similar trouble with the best of results; and I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore. I used them strictly according to directions and they afforded me prompt and effective relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

HISTORICAL FLAGSTAFF

Erected in the Yard of Captain James Dunn in Limestone Street

Commodore Logan Cook has just completed placing in position in Captain James Dunn's yard a flag pole that has quite a history.

The pole is of cypress and is 60 feet in length.

The staff was made in New Orleans and originally adorned the bow of the first steamer Potomac some thirty-five years or more ago.

It belonged to Captain C. M. Phister for a number of years, and that gentleman gave it to Captain Dunn, who had it erected on his premises and from which "Old Glory" will float on State occasions.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

It acts through the blood on every part of the system, reviving and stimulating it to new life and injecting the whole body full of energy. JUST WHAT YOU NEED. Only 50 cents per bottle.
